1. In June 1950 CH'EN K'o-hua (陳克華)* was appointed by the military command on Taiwan to head the Eastern Kwangtung Command of the Southeast People's Anti-Communist National Salvation Army. His second-in-command, and commanding officer of the 2 Column, is CH'EN Sung-nien (陳松年). Other leaders promoting the guerrilla movement in Hong Kong are:
 - a. LI Chiang (李江), care of CHU Yin-chiu (朱蔭裘), New China Restaurant, Connaught Road Central. LI claims to have been the Kwangtung 10th Administrative Area Commissioner and commander of the 3 Army Command of the People's Anti-Communist Self Defense and National Salvation Army.
 - b. CH'EN Shih-ying (陳世英), 24 Lung Kong Road, Kowloon.
 - c. CH'EN Shih-ching (陳世杰).
2. Because of the inability of the Nationalist Government to support the movement, appeals are being made to overseas Chinese for financial aid. For instance, LI Tai-yung (李泰榮), cousin of CH'EN Sung-nien, is responsible for raising funds throughout the Philippines. His address is 335 Corriedo, Santa Cruz, Manila.

Comment. It is impossible to determine to what extent these guerrilla units really function, or to what extent the alleged activities are simply a means of enriching the individuals concerned.

25X1A *

Comment. This may be the CH'EN K'o-hua (陳克華) who was reported as a supervisor of the Nationalist 5th Administrative Section for Kwangtung in March 1946.

25X1A

Comment. LI Chiang is a self-styled lieutenant general and commander of the 3 Anti-Communist Army in Kwangtung. He is reported to have defected to the Communists at the takeover of Kwangtung, but later rejoined NGUEN Yueh prior to the fall of Hainan.

25X1X ***

Comment. Such funds presumably would be remitted to Hong Kong
